

The book corner

Spruce Ridge Farm has been featured in two recently published books. First is a delightful children's book titled, "Here I Am! Alpacas in America" with loads of pictures and information. Author Amy Kefauver was also the photographer, though we contributed several of Spruce Ridge Farm photos to the effort. It is available in Spruce Ridge farm store.

The second book is titled "Hudson River Valley Farms" by Joanne Michaels, and beautifully photographed by Rich Pomerantz. A treasure of information on local farms.
